Description of Activity/Service:

RTI International is implementing the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) Energy Secure Philippines (ESP) Activity, a five-year activity that focuses on advancing inclusive economic growth and resilient development through increasing private investment to promote advanced technology deployment and boost the energy sector's resilience to shocks and stresses. As part of its goal to foster advanced energy systems to yield a more efficient and affordable electricity market, USAID ESP supports the Department of Energy in promoting the best energy-efficient practices, products, and services through emerging technology innovations. In 2021, DOE and USAID ESP launched the Energy Efficiency and Virtual Showroom (EEVS) to continuously raise awareness of the environmental and economic benefits of energy efficient technologies. The EEVS features the City of Energia Mobile Application and the Enerhiyang Atin and Wattmatters websites.

To enable target users to experience an enhanced version of the EEVS, RTI International is looking for a website development company that will deploy and develop the new version of the Enerhiyang Atin and Wattmatters websites.

Note: The winning website development company shall coordinate with the previous website developer in facilitating the transfer of codes to execute the necessary processes in enhancing the graphics and user interface and ensuring its compatibility with web-based applications.
